CALLING ALL ANGELS
Monte Carlo Casino Night

A Benefit for Minnesota Ovarian Cancer Alliance
Celebrating All Women with Ovarian Cancer

Minneapolis – “Since being diagnosed with ovarian cancer, I want to do fun things and celebrate life.” That statement by an ovarian cancer survivor inspired Lisa McLaughlin, Minnesota Ovarian Cancer Alliance (MOCA) Co-President, to turn the benefit Calling All Angels into a celebratory event for all women with ovarian cancer

“I’m so proud to be the chairperson for the third annual Calling All Angels,” Lisa McLaughlin says. “This event does a wonderful job of attracting new supporters to MOCA, informing women about the warning signs of ovarian cancer and raising the profile of the disease. This year promises to be another spectacular evening.”

On Saturday, March 4, from 7-11 pm, the Calhoun Beach Club, located in Minneapolis at 2925 Dean Parkway, will become a Monte Carlo-style Casino. This festive gala will feature casino games with celebrity dealers, heavenly appetizers and a sensational silent auction.

“MOCA is committed to supporting women with ovarian cancer and their families,” explains Executive Director Kathleen Gavin. “This support comes in many forms – whether it be our Walk/Run, a special night of pampering, a seminar about genetic counseling or a formal affair, like Calling All Angels. We are thrilled that this event is celebrating all women with ovarian cancer.”

Proceeds from the event will benefit Minnesota Ovarian Cancer Alliance and its mission to fund ovarian cancer research, raise awareness of the disease and provide support to women with ovarian cancer and their families. In the past five years, MOCA has awarded more than $1 million for ovarian cancer research in Minnesota.

Attire for Calling All Angels is formal to semi-formal. The cost to attend is $75 in advance or $100 at the door.

Partygoers may want to show their support for MOCA by becoming an "Angel with a Gold Halo." For $200 per person or $350 for a couple, you will receive recognition in the Calling All Angels program, one/two drink tickets and a silent auction voucher.

Or, if you would like to do more, you could become an "Angel with Platinum Wings." For $400 per person or $700 for a couple, you will receive the same benefits as mentioned above PLUS VIP auction check out and a special Calling All Angels gift.
