Minneapolis, MN – Ovarian cancer survivors, family members and friends are invited to attend the November MOCA Meeting “A Gathering for Members New & Old” on Tuesday, November 14 from 6-8 p.m. at the Southdale Library, 7001 York Avenue South, Edina.

Women who have recently been diagnosed with ovarian cancer will have the chance to meet other survivors and learn about what MOCA does. Those who are already MOCA members will have the opportunity to reconnect and make new acquaintances.

Incentive prizes will be presented to individuals who raised more than $500 in pledges for the Silent No More Walk/Run and the top pledge getters will be announced. In addition, the oncology nurses selected to receive support from MOCA’s Anita Lubov Memorial Fund will be named.

This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be provided.
