

Press Coverage

Star Tribune, May 3, 2005
Dona Halvorson

Ovarian Cancer Alliance meeting will be on May 10

The Minnesota Ovarian Cancer Alliance will hold its annual meeting for ovarian cancer survivors, their friends and family members at the Southdale Library on May 10.

The meeting, from 6 to 8 p.m., is open to the public. Recipients of the organization's grants will talk about their research. Grants this year will total $300,000, bringing the total over five years to nearly $1 million.

The library is at 7001 York Av. S. in Edina.

For information call 952-890-8775 or visit www.mnovarian.org.